DRY GOODS.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at H. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

A. CREECH,

Fayetteville Street.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this and hand it to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. OUR GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE. IF ANY WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND STUDS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT ABOUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE BETTER IT TAKES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVELY CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN FAWNS IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY BY VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

"Hail! Horrors,—Hail!
* * * * * * * *
Better to reign in Hell than serve in Heaven."
—Satan (and others.)

When the Howard amendment was submitted to the free action of the Southern Legislatures, no one can forget how vehemently its ratification was urged by those precious spirits that then floated on the surface of the troubled sea. We were told, in impassioned and melting tones, that if this amendment were rejected, inconceivable horrors were doomed to come upon the prostrate South.

Hoping to escape the threatened doom, we eagerly asked if this would be a finality?—if, by thus submitting our better judgments to these demands which we felt to be unconstitutional and cruelly oppressive, we could, after that, have the rest and quiet for which our wearied souls panted? We could obtain no response from Congress.—Embodied Radicalism sullenly closed its lips, but ominously shook the scourge in our faces.

Leading men in that over-bearing party, however, gave free utterance to haughty denials. They said, individually, that whether we accepted the harsh measure, or not, other more stringent and humiliating measures were in store for us. It was no finality. Take the lash, said Stevens, and Sumner, and Butler; and then prepare for future scourging. You deserve them all; and have no right to ask impertinent questions. All you have to do is to submit.—Such was the spirit, and such the language, of the supercilious replies to our earnest aspirations for "peace."

Still we were coolly told by our organs here, "better to bear the ills we have than fly to others we know not of"—better to swallow the Howard Amendment than be overwhelmed with the horrors that would be sure to follow our contumacy, in case of rejection. The Standard shrieked its ratifications of war; shaking its warning finger, and beseeching us to be satisfied with "qualified African suffrage," or we would surely have inflicted on us the unutterable wrath of the unicorn! dominion of the late subject race. "Accept and adopt this Amendment," it said; "let those negroes who are best qualified by character and intelligence be now admitted to the polls as your equals, or you will have the heels of the whole African people on your necks as a punishment, and you will be in the dust forever." That paper, in the face of authoritative and contemptuous denials from those in high places, continued to assert that we could yet save ourselves from the threatened horrors by a timely submission to the hard demands of this deceptive amendment. It constantly averred that it would be a finality. We asked for the proof. It gave us none; but, while others were denying, more strongly re-iterated its own unsupported assertions. They were no proof to us. We had been too often misled by that Jesuitical print, to trust it now. We did not believe that any amount of submission would save us; and our Legislature, so left to themselves, with singular unanimity refused to adopt the Article. They could not consent to what they knew was an unconstitutional usurpation upon our rights as a State; especially when the question was thus left to their own unbiassed choice. They could not, and would not, make themselves voluntary parties to their own disgrace and degradation, when not a hope existed that even this humiliation would save the State from further and greater ills. It was rejected—and those ills came, one after another, in the shape, and under the name, of Acts for Reconstruction, to which we knew we were doomed, in either event. They came as threatened, each charged with intense malignity. They are all over and around us, now, and "where oh! where was Roderic then?" Where is Roderic (aforesaid) now? Doth he come to the rescue of his beleaguered men? Is that his blast upon the glorious bugle horn? Does he summon his men to the strife—to save his old friends whom he had so piteously warned? Will he now valiantly

"Shield them, save them, or perish there too?"

Where are his tender Jeremiads now? Does he still weep over the woes of his Zion? Have his precious sympathizing eyes become fountains of tears? Tears—indeed! He laughed, as laughs the hyena amidst congenial ruins, and mocks at the wretches whom he, more than any one else, had decluded and bamboozled on to their own undoing! While moderate Republicans abroad shrink from the consequences of their unholy work—standing aghast at their own wild havoc and vainly attempting to deny their guilt, and to cast the blame on more turbulent spirits; while their knees smite together, and each stammers out, in the language of the guilty trembling assassin: "Thou canst not say I did it"—it is then, that these native new born Radicals substitute themselves in the place of our foreign oppressors, roll up their sleeves, and whet their swords to the bloody work. These children of the soil, to the manor born, take upon themselves the laglorious task of twisting the screws upon the limbs of their old associates and friends, and gleefully rejoice whenever they have the power of giving an additional turn to the wheel that crushes the bones of their brothers. Their voices no longer sound the notes of alarm to their deluded friends. They sound the notes of savage exultation over their victims. They no longer sigh hypocritically over their errors; neither do they now mockingly seem to endeavor to save them from perdition; but, howling around them with more than Indian brutality, and a ferocity worthy only of demons, push them on! It has become a labor of love to torture those whom they once pretended to try to save. It was hypocritical then. It is diabolical now.

A large and enthusiastic and glorious party, at the North, have buckled on their armor, and are gallantly coming to our relief. And where is our wailing Roderic? And where are his sympathizing hosts?—Where are his thousand men? Do they go out to welcome these gallant strangers, as they come to burst away the clouds in which reckless and cruel men of their section have enveloped this once bright and beautiful land? Do they meet them on the borders and give them a cordial greeting? Do they sing them a grateful song, soon to be changed to a song of triumph, when we shall have been redeemed from all the tribulations, which they once so dolorously made the theme of their lamentations? Shall we all rejoice together when our people shall be lifted out of their despair—and our gloomy horrors shall have been chased away? Shall we then be all jubilant and joyous together? Alas! how changed from the patriots they once were—or pretended to be! There are no lamentations now, but loud rejoicings over the fulfilment of their sinister prophecies; with outspread arms their cry now is "congenial horrors, hail." They are the volunteer executioners, now, of the mighty wrath of others. Or, rather, they are assigned to complete the State slaughter, and then to enact the role of lugubrious undertakers at the royal funeral. A race of foreign fanatics drove the nail through the temples of the sleeping Sisera—and our own sons—born on our own soil—meet together and clinch the nail!

But might we not hope that "His Excellency," at least, now that he has attained the object of a life-long ambition, and been authorized by the votes of a free and enlightened people (!!!) to "write himself Governor" of N. C., may be content with the honors that blush around his brow, (well may such honors blush) and join in the endeavor to save from overwhelming despair those whom he, by example and precept, has led on to ruin? How can he!—He is but a man; has four thousand a year, with sundry fat pickings and stealings; and four long years to do it in. No. His Excellency is a lost man.

Will not the Judiciary throw the shadows of their spotless ermine around us and mellow our griefs? How can they? with eight years of Judicial glory sparkling before them; with little to do; and each rejoicing in $2,500 per annum, to do it in.

Will the minor satraps lift up their voice and pray for the welfare and peace of this our Jerusalem? How can they? when their mouths, that in former times were only familiar with stark-naked corn bread, pork, and potatoes, are now delectated with official plum-pudding to last for years; so that all patriotic utterance is smothered and choked by its luscious sweets! Ah, no! We must work on without them, with what courage we may, in accord with that great party abroad that is fighting our battles; and in humble trust that a righteous God will prosper our cause and crown it with success.

GEN. SHERMAN has written a letter declining the invitation to attend the meeting of the Soldiers' Convention in Philadelphia. He gives an excellent rebuke to those officers of the army who, while drawing pay from the Treasury for their services, go about the country denouncing every man who intends to vote for Seymour and Blair as "copperhead" "traitor," &c.

THE ISSUES OF THE CANVASS.

GREAT SPEECH OF EX-ATTORNEY GENERAL STANBERY, AT LANCASTER, OHIO, ON SEPTEMBER 26.

A Cogent and Conclusive Commentary on Radical Rule, &c, &c, &c.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—We are on the eve of a Presidential election, a struggle for power between two contending parties—one called Republican, the other Democratic and Conservative. It is to the last named party that, as a Conservative, I belong. You know me in years past as a Whig, in this County, during six Presidential elections.—As a member of the Whig party I contended against the Democratic party. Now, I am here affiliated with my former antagonists. The issues of the past have disappeared; there is no longer any question about a Bank of the United States—about internal improvements by the Federal Government; about a tariff for protection; about free trade; about the acquisition of more territory, and, above all, about fugitive slave laws and slavery in the Territories. These questions, once deemed so vital, no longer enter into the political platforms of the day. They sleep with the great party leaders of former times. New questions have since arisen and with these new questions has come a new adjustment of party relations. And first were the questions that arose with the rebellion: the right of secession; the right to compel by force unwilling States to remain in the Union; the policy of continuing the war. These questions, too, have passed away. They were settled forever by the suppression of the rebellion. With the close of the war, all these old questions having been settled, a new question arose in practical importance second only to that of the preservation of the Union—the question as to the policy to be pursued toward the Southern States. Was it to be a policy of reconciliation and restoration? or of hate and exclusion? Was it to be a policy which contemplated these States as still in the Union in their political character as States, or a policy which contemplated them as States no longer, but as so much conquered territory? While the war was in progress, the Republican party declared, by resolution of both Houses of Congress, passed with unusual unanimity, that the object of the war was not conquest or subjugation, but the suppression of the rebellion and restoration of the States to all their rights as States of the Union.

Well, fellow-citizens, the rebellion was suppressed three years and a half ago. Has the pledge been redeemed? It happened that when the war was about ended, Mr. Lincoln was our President, and Congress was in recess. Mr. Lincoln set himself to work to carry out in good faith the pledge so made. Upon his death Mr. Johnson adopted and followed the policy thus begun. During the summer and fall of 1865 the Southern States, acting under executive advice, repealed their ordinances of secession, and brought their Constitutions and laws into conformity with Federal law, or, to use the words of Mr. Lincoln, re-establish their proper relations to the Union. They chose Senators and Representatives according to the requirements of the Federal Constitution, who presented themselves in December, 1865, and were ready to take their seats in the Thirty ninth Congress. They were all rejected—on what ground? Not because there was any objection to them personally, not because they were rebels, or had ever been rebels, but because those who appeared as Senators did not represent States, and those who appeared as Representatives did not represent Congressional Districts in States. This, and this alone, was the ground of exclusion—that by the act of secession, these States had lost their character as States of the Union, and so being out of the fellowship of States, they could never be restored to their former condition except by Congressional authority and recognition. I am well aware that Republicans are not agreed that these Southern States were taken out of the Union by secession or rebellion. Many, and perhaps a majority, of the republican members of the Thirty-ninth Congress did not give their assent to that doctrine. But they all agreed to the exclusion of Southern Senators and Representatives.

POSITION OF SOUTHERN STATES AT THE CLOSE OF THE WAR.

Now, fellow-citizens, everything turns upon that point. Were these eleven States in the Union when the rebellion was suppressed? They had been States of the Union. That was their condition in 1860. What act, what power had severed them from the Union in 1865? Certainly not Federal authority, for there is no power under our Constitution to turn a State out of the Union. There is a power to admit, but not to expel. To use the language of the bar, there is no power of amotion in our political system. If, then, these States were out of the Union in 1865, it must have been in virtue of their own inherent power to take themselves out. It must have been in virtue of a fundamental right, not surrendered when they became parties to the Union. It is precisely on that ground that those Republicans must stand who maintain that the ties which bound these States to the Union were dissolved; in other words, it is the doctrine of secession. Now, consider how the other branch of the Republicans stand who deny this doctrine, and maintain that secession was not a right, that it had no color of legality, and was simply void. If this is the true doctrine—as no doubt it is—how do they justify the denial of representation to these States?—How can they reconcile this denial with the plain provisions of the Constitution? I need refer to but one—the provision that declares that each State shall be entitled to two Senators—a provision deemed so sacred that it never can be changed, not even by a constitutional amendment, without the consent of the States sought to be deprived of such representation. Again, if these States retained their character as States of the Union, the consequence is inevitable that they were States to all intents and purposes. The cardinal idea as to the States is that of equality. No State has more power than another. All have the same rights, and are subject to the same duties. When Congress declares that the State of Virginia has lost her right to representation in Congress, they deny that she is a State. When Congress denies to Virginia the right to regulate the suffrage of her citizens, they take from her one of the highest attributes of a State of this Union. Between these two classes of the Republican party, that class who place the right to exclusion upon the ground that the States are out of the Union, show most logical consistency. If they are right in the premise, they are right in their conclusion, but there is no way in which the other class can put their theory with even the semblance of propriety. In point of fact they are equally wrong; one is wrong in the premise, the other in the conclusion. Secession did not take the States out of the Union, and if not, then as States they are entitled to representation. Let us put the question in another light: These States were in rebellion against the Federal authority. They were in actual insurrection. Such a condition of things as to States is contemplated by the Constitution, which gives to the Federal authority the right and makes it its duty to put down the insurrection, not to put down the States; to restore the former relations, not to destroy them.—I take it, therefore, to be clear that not one of these Southern States was at any time taken out of the Union. Virginia, for instance, was just as fully a State of the Union in 1865 as she was in 1860. Her ordinance of secession was a nullity and worked no change. The insurrection within her border was an illegal act, and was lawfully put down by forces of arms. Our Federal system hangs upon the position that no State can withdraw from the Union by its own volition, or by unsuccessful insurrection; Once a State always a State. You may make a State out of a Territory, but you can never make a Territory out of a State. Show me a State once in the Union, and now out of the Union, and you show me a dissolved Union—the result of secession followed by successful rebellion. No, fellow citizens, nothing short of successful revolution can sever the ties which bind the States together. In that case arms take the place of law, and the arbitrament is final.

RECOGNITION BY CONGRESS OF THE EXISTENCE OF THE SOUTHERN STATES.

The theory that the eleven Southern States ceased to be States in virtue of their ordinances of secession is a sham—a false pretence manufactured to justify the course pursued toward them by the Republican Congress. If time served, I could prove its falsity out of their own mouths. Let one instance suffice. The Constitution provides that a new State shall not be made out of the territory of a State without the consent of the old State. When Congress set about to make a new State of the territory of Virginia, to be called West Virginia, what did they recite in the preamble of the act creating the new State? They recited that the consent of the Legislature of the State of Virginia had been given. Mark it that this was done before the ordinance of secession of Virginia had been repealed, and before the insurrection was put down. Even then a Republican Congress declared in a most solemn manner that Virginia was still a State of the Union, and that she had a Legislature capable of giving assent to such an act of sovereign authority, as the partition of her territory. Look through all the legislation of Congress, during the war, and in every act, in every resolution, the eleven political communities engaged in the rebellion are everywhere recognized as States. They are uniformly described as "the insurrectionary States," or as "States in insurrection." Find, if you can, any act or resolution of Congress passed during the war or since, which declares that all those States, or any one of them, ever ceased to be a State. The legislative designation given to them when the insurrection was subdued, is that of "States lately in insurrection." Nay, my friends, the Republican Congress admitted Representatives and Senators from those States to seats in each branch of the National Legislature, not as delegates from Territories, but as Representatives and Senators from States—and this, while their ordinances of secession were unrepealed and the rebellion was in full vigor. What, then, has been accomplished which war could not accomplish? Is this the fruit—is this the consummation? Did our gallant and patriotic soldiers pour out their blood to destroy, and not to preserve? Did they fight to dismantle our brotherhood of States, and to strike out eleven stars from our National escutcheon? Did they struggle to accomplish what the rebellion could not accomplish? No! no! They went forth under the banner of the Constitution to put down an insurrection, not to destroy the States in which it raged. This was a just and holy purpose which gave the war all its dignity—all its legality. They did not leave their pleasant homes to conquer and abolish the States, or to subjugate their people, to acquire new territory, to build up a new Union—to create new States. They went forth to restore every one of these States and every one of their citizens to their former relations. What they meant to do was to preserve the Union, not to destroy the States, not to deprive them of their representation, not to put them and their people outside of the Constitution, not to disfranchise the white race and enfranchise the black race, not to make the white man a slave and the negro a master. These white soldiers were not unfaithful to the dignity and superiority of their race. What they meant was that these eleven States should be governed by the white man, not by the negro. The Ohio soldier did not fight to give the ballot to the negro and take it from the white man. He did not mean to vote against negro suffrage in Ohio and to fight for it in Virginia. Not one of our soldiers went into this war to carry out the Radical idea that Congress has the right to establish negro suffrage in a State under the Constitutional duty to guarantee to each State a republican Government. Not one of them was so blind as not to see that if a State which denies the ballot to the negro has not a republican form of government, then Ohio is not republican, and Congress has the same right to impose negro suffrage upon Ohio as upon Virginia. When the rebellion was put down and peace was restored, what was required to put these revolted States in their proper relations to the Union? Nothing more than the voluntary action of their people. Their Constitutions, which had been changed during the rebellion to conform to the ordinances of secession, required amendment. To me nothing is clearer than these amendments could be made by the people of these States, and not by the people of other States, whether in Congress or out of Congress. Four of these States did so act upon their own volition.—The seven others were aided in the work by executive authority, initiated by Mr. Lincoln, and followed out by Mr. Johnson. Thus acting they repealed their ordinances of secession, amended their Constitutions, and elected Senators and Representatives to represent them as States and citizens of States, in the Congress of the Union.—What more could be asked of the Southern people? They laid down their arms; they repudiated their debt incurred by the war; they abolished slavery. Was ever acquiescence in the result of a war more thorough and complete? This was the state of things when a Republican Congress assembled in December, 1865; only one thing remained to finish the great work of reconstruction, and that was the admission of the Southern Representatives. They were not admitted—and wherefore not? The Constitutions they had framed were not acceptable to the Radical party in one particular alone, and that was that they did not confer the right of suffrage on the blacks.—That was a sine qua non, and in some way, right or wrong, that must be accomplished. If no way under the Constitution could be found, they intended to make a way outside the Constitution. They began, however, under the Constitution, by proposing an amendment, to be submitted to all the States for adoption, and this was to change the basis of representation as fixed in the Constitution, so as to exclude the non-voting population from that basis. If the proposed amendment had contained no other provision than this, it is probable that the Southern States would have adopted it, but it was coupled with another odious feature, abhorrent to all honorable Southern men, which disfranchised certain classes in the South who had been engaged in the rebellion. It required these Southern people who had themselves engaged in the rebellion to degrade and punish their neighbors and friends who were no more guilty than themselves. This they would not do, and who can blame them?

(CONCLUDED TO-MORROW.)

THE CONCERT IN HILLSBORO.

HILLSBORO', Oct. 3, 1868.

The Concert by the ladies of the Episcopal choir, for the benefit of their Church, came off on Thursday evening, at the Masonic Hall.

A full house was in attendance, expecting to be delighted by the "concord of sweet sounds" which were to fall from the fingers and issue from the delicate throats of Hillsboro's most beautiful and fascinating young ladies.

Since it was your correspondent's good fortune to be present, I hope that he may be pardoned for giving you a brief account of the performance, as it might somewhat interest some of your numerous readers.

The Concert opened with a Piano Overture from the Opera "Barber of Seville," performed by Misses L. J. and M. N., with an accuracy and precision truly gratifying to their excellent instructor, Mr. C. T. Lamm.

The same ladies executed, in the 2nd. part, an overture from "Ernani," with like success.

Miss M. C. sung, in the most captivating manner, three solos, viz: Valse of Ricci, La Farfaletta of Arditi, and Eve's Lamentation. Miss C. possesses a a sweet soprano voice, of considerable volume; her enunciation is expressive, and her intonation, almost without exception, pure and correct. Immense applause followed her every appearance.

Miss R. R. sung a Valse from the "White Fawn," called "Bridal Morn," in a highly pleasing manner. Also a song, with chorus, of Wallbridge, called "Now I lay me down to sleep," which made a remarkable effect upon the audience—Mr. S. N's. fine base voice and Miss M. N's. delicate alto voice accompanying in the chorus.

Misses R. H. and S. N. sung a Duet, with chorus, from the opera "Norma," in such a fine style that it was enthusiastically encored.

The solo 'La Fingara,' which was also sung by Miss H., was very attractive.

Captain N., the conductor of the choir, added much to the entertainment by the fullness of his deep base voice. Besides joining with Misses W. H. and R. in the quartette of Moses in Egypt, the serenade for Don Pasquale and several other pieces, he sung a solo, 'The Sexton,' in a manner not to be surpassed.

The Violin in the hands of Mr. C. increased the charm of the occasion.

The masterpiece of the evening, 'Piano Fantasie de Lucie de Lammermoor,' op. 8 of Prudent, was reserved for the talent of Miss L. J., whose wonderful velocity and elegance amazed and enraptured the audience.

The entertainment closed by a song and chorus, 'Gloria in Excelsis.'

It is understood that another concert will be given next month, for the same purpose, and to all lovers of good music I would say, if you desire a treat, come.—Neither your time nor your money will be thrown away, for if any place in the State can boast of musical talent, it certainly is the ancient 'Boro.'

ALLEGRO CON BRIO.

One of the Radical candidates for the Legislature in Choctaw county had a little boy about fifteen years old who fell in love and engaged himself to one of the neighbor's girls. His father learning the facts, hunted the young man up, and finding him at his lady love's house, gave him a good whipping and sent him home. The little fellow started on his way crying and met one of the neighbors, who inquired what was the matter. The little fellow replied that his father whipped him because he wanted to marry.

"Why, my son," said the neighbor, "I would not care for that—plenty of time in five years for you to marry."

"Yes, but I do," replied the little fellow, blubbering, "I have got a chance to marry a white gal now, and the way dad's going on I'll have to marry a nigger.—Okitibbeha (Miss) News.

The Raleigh Sentinel declares that it has never seen such a torrent of indignation and scorn as the Press and decent people of the State are pouring upon the head of the infamous author of the Standard's brutal attack upon the ladies of the South. Not a single radical press, however, has dared to say a word in disapprobation of that villainous slander.

We understand that the ladies about Milton talk seriously of arming themselves with cowhides and horsewhips and going to Raleigh and horse-whipping the author out of the State. The men would have done it ere this, but for the cry, "let us have peace."—Milton Chronicle.

The Tract consists of EIGHTY SIX ACRES
of first-class Piney Woods Land, about 20 acres cleared, balance in original forest growth. The soil is finely adapted to the cultivation of COTTON, CORN and Vegetables. A beautiful Truck or Fruit Farm could be made of it. Several Scuppernong Vines in bearing and a choice lot of selected Pea, Pear, and Apple Trees adorning the residence.

The Dwelling, a modern-built house of eight rooms, four below and four above, with wide passage on first floor, and verandas in front and rear, is handsomely located in a grove of two acres. A well of purest cold water on the premises. Every necessary out-house, all in a fine state of preservation. This place is situated in a proverbially healthy country, chills and fever being almost unknown, and is about the centre of one of the finest neighborhoods in the country. A residence combining so many advantages is seldom in the market.

Possession given on 1st January, 1869.

Terms—Twelve months credit, with interest from that date.

On same day and same terms, Jos. W. Wimberly's one-fourth remainder interest in the Wilson Tract of Land, and his one-fourth remainder interest in the Harrison Fund

NOTICE.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY has paid another loss. Read the following:

$3.000.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 15th, 1868.

Received of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Bunn. No. of said Policy 48,793.
With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,
I am, respectfully,
HESTER A. BUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy,	No. 15 273	$5.000
"	" 10 818	5.000
"	" 18,067	5.000

GLORIOUS RALLY LAST NIGHT!

All of the Wards were represented at the Court House, last night—the "Eastern" marching down in full force, with music. These, with strangers in attendance, left not an inch of spare room in the large building. The enthusiasm was inspiring and super-abounding.

The meeting adjourned, at a late hour, after hearing a powerful effort from Gov. Bragg, one of the most able and effective speeches of any campaign from Col. W. A. Jenkins, of Warren, and an eloquent address from Mr. F. H. Busbee, who signalized his first political effort very handsomely. We have no time for further comment, this morning.

See advertisement of Austin, Corbin & Co., in another column.

New Advertisements.—Handsome property for sale in Edgecombe, near the town of Tarboro: Wm. M. Pippen and Jno. S. Dacey.

Good hard Brick, delivered on the cars at Selma, Johnston Co.: W. H. Jones & Co., Auction and Commission Merchants.

The attractive auction of W. H. Jones & Co. will be continued to-night, (Tuesday.)

Read the announcement of Lougee and Brother, Fayetteville Street. These gentlemen have had a life long experience in their line of business, and when they say that they "insure success" in all they sell, we are ready to endorse it. Give them a call.

Ladies! Remember that there will be an opening at Mrs. Oettinger's, on Thursday, the 8th. day of October.

Wake Superior Court.—This tribunal is in session the present week—"Judge" Watts presiding.

Registrars and Inspectors.—We publish, in another column, the list of Registrars and Inspectors appointed for this county. It is about as fair an arrangement, taken altogether, we suppose, as could have been expected under the circumstances.

Hon. David A. Barnes, our candidate for Congress in the 1st. District, is doing effective work and making a splendid canvass.

Francis M. Harper, late Sheriff of Craven, died at his residence, in that county, on Thursday night last. He was one of the best and most highly esteemed citizens in the county.

Mr Stanbery's Speech.—We publish, to-day, a portion of Judge Stanbery's great speech at Lancaster, Ohio, a few day since. The remainder will appear to-morrow, so that the whole speech will be in our Semi-Weekly. We are sure that we could devote our space to nothing more acceptable. It is a great speech,—just, true, logical, statesman-like and convincing.

Mass Meeting in Hertford.—The Democratic Mass Meeting in Hertford, Perquimans, on the 26th. ult., was the grandest affair that has yet taken place in the Eastern part of the State. The counties east of the Chowan river were largely represented.—Eloquent speeches were made by Thos. C. Bulham, Esq., Capt. Thomas J. Jarvis, Candidate for Elector, James M. Whedbee, of Pasquotank, Maj. Henry A. Gilliam, of Chowan, Aug. M. Moore, Esq., of Edenton, Thos. G. Skinner, of Hertford, James M. Mullen, Esq., of the same town, and Octavious Coke, Esq., of Edenton. A bountiful barbecue was provided, and the enthusiasm was glorious.

The Libel upon Southern Women.—We are glad to see that the Northern papers are denouncing, in strong and indignant terms, the recent cowardly and brutal libel of the Radical "Woman Insulter" of this city.

Mass Meeting in Pitt.—The Democrats of Pitt have determined to hold a series of Mass Meetings at the following named times and places:

Able speakers may be expected at each.

Farmville,	8th
Ballard's Store,	14th
Bethel,	17th
Shiloh,	24th
Tafts,	27th
Greenville,	29th
Pactolus,	31st.

Radical Outrage.—We observe that the Radical authorities of Newbern have removed the following gentlemen, old residents and natives of Newbern, as Trustees of Newbern Academy, viz: Messrs. John Hughes, A. T. Jerkins, Jno. D. Flanner, W. P. Moore and W. H. Oliver, who represent nine tenths of the white people of the city, and put in their places C. R. Thomas, A. S. Seymour, F. J. Jones, F. D. Shalachter and Col. W. S. Clarke. Mr. F. J. Jones is the only native citizen among them,—if not the only property holder in the batch.—Verily, the Radicals strive hard to make themselves odious to decent, sensible people, every where.

First of the Season!—Our worthy friend Magain, who presides at Buckalan & Laswell's, corner of Hargett and Wilmington streets, regaled us most sumptuously and generously, on yesterday, after the arrival of the train, by sending to our sanctum a waiter loaded with fine Norfolk oysters "on the shell." They were most luscious, and are but specimens of what Buckalan & Laswell will receive, every day, hereafter and, during the season.

Distinguished Arrivals.—Two of Holden's carpet-bag major-generals, of the North Carolina special negro militia, paid a flying visit to Norfolk yesterday on a rampage.—Norfolk Journal, Saturday.

What sort of a "rampage?" Any Sharpe's Carbines expected via Norfolk? Will our cotemporaries in that quarter keep a look-out?

THE CONGRESSIONAL TICKETS.

The people of North Carolina should examine and weigh well the character of the Congressional candidates before voting.—The contrast between the two tickets will strike every man at all acquainted with them. We give them below:

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL TICKET.

1st District.		Hon. David A. Barnes, of Hertford.
2nd	"	Col. Thomas S. Kenan, of Duplin.
3rd	"	A. A. McKoy, Esq., of Sampson.
4th	"	Hon. Sion H. Rogers of Wake.
5th	"	Col. Livingston Brown, of Caswell.
6th	"	Francis C. Shober, Esq., of Rowan.
7th	"	Plato Durham, Esq., of Cleaveland.

The foregoing are men of ability and high moral standing and such as any people might be proud of to represent them in Congress. They are all native North Carolinians, sound in policies and devoted to the cause of civil liberty and the Conttitution. Let the true lovers of liberty, of peace and Union, rally to their support.

RADICAL OR REPUBLICAN TICKET.

1st District, C. L. Cobb of Pasquotank, (regular.)
1st Dist., Jno. R. French, of Washington City, (independent.)
2d Dist., Col. David Heaton, of Wisconsin.
3d Dist., Col. O. H. Dockery, of Richmond.
4th " Col. J. T. Deweese, of Indiana.
5th " Col. W. F. Henderson, of Davidson, (regular.)
5th Dist., "Judge" Tourgee of Ohio, (indep't.)
6th " Hon. Nat. Boyden, of Rowan, (independent, "so-called.")
7th Dist., Hon. A. H. Jones, of Buncombe.

Mr. Boyden and Col. Dockery are men of character and ability, and the only men on the ticket who would make respectable representatives of the State, if elected. They are both in the wrong box and in antagonism to their former associations and positions. The Hon. Israel G. Lash, the present incumbent from the 5th District, has been ignored by the party with which he acts,—being perhaps too honest and respectable a man to answer its purposes; hence they have thrown him overboard and taken up "Billy Henderson" and "Judge" Tourgee, than whom, if we are to believe what they say of each other, two more unworthy scape-graces cannot be found. It would be difficult for the Radical party in North Carolina to find two better representatives of the real character of Radicalism among us, than "Windy Billy" and "Judge" Tourgee.

Apropos to this matter, the Milton Chronicle says:

"The Hon. I. G. Lash, who now represents this District in Congress, says the nominations of Henderson and Tourgee, for Congress, are enough to disgust any man and damn any party. Lash was too decent a man for the use of the Rads.

Tourgee denounces Henderson as "a man whose character is of the blackest dye—a common neighborhood liar—a putrid mass of villainy—a man whose life represents the whole catalogue of crime—a man that not an honorable Republican dares vote for." Henderson's friends, on the other hand, say that Tourgee is meaner than Henderson, on whom Gov. Holden showers the honors of office.

Tourgee says he would prefer sending a Conservative to Congress to Henderson, and he prefers a Conservative to Tourgee! This being the case, let them all vote for Livingston Brown, a scholar and a gentleman."

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE STIFLED—HIGH HANDED USURPATION!

At the last election, Maj. L. H. Conyers was elected one of the Commissioners for Nash County, by several hundred majority. Maj. C., having held no office before the war, is not banned by the Howard amendment. On the 14th of August, at Raleigh, Maj. C. qualified as one of the Commissioners for Nash, before Judge Rodman, of the Supreme Court.

Notwithstanding these facts, "Gov." Holden has appointed five Commissioners for the County,—ignoring Maj. Conyers entirely, in express violation of the law and in defiance of the voice of the people!

At a meeting of Holden's newly appointed Commissioners, a few days since, we learn, Maj. Conyers presented himself, claimed the position for which he had been deprived, without the shadow of law, and, in the name of the people of the County, entered his solemn protest against this high handed and shameful outrage!

The five Commissioners appointed by Holden are notoriously incompetent, and constitute the bulk of the scallawags in Nash, and the County had to be raked with a fine-tooth comb to find even them.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

It is a very significant circumstance that the official returns of the Maine election are still withheld by the Radical State authorities. They will probably not be allowed to transpire until after the Presidential election. Meanwhile, there is considerable reason to believe that the Republican majority in Maine may not, in point of fact, be larger than it was, twelve months ago, when that majority was reduced below 12,000. For instance, it has leaked out that Aroostook County, which has been reported as giving 887 Radical majority, really goes Democratic by 100 majority!

A Democratic Soldiers' Club, composed of ex Confederate and ex-Federal soldiers has been formed in Newbern. A Committee on Organization has been appointed, consisting of Maj. Jno. Hughes, Col. J. V. Jordan and Mr. J. E. Nash, late of the C. S. Army, and Brevet Brig. Gen. J. E. Fleming and Col. Smith, of the U. S. A.

From the Richmond Examiner.

With the varying reports from the North the feeling of the Southern public ebbs and flows like the tide. A week or ten days ago there was some depression, not particularly because of any really adverse news, but it was only one of those unaccountable seasons, which, in individuals, are denominated low spirits or "blues." During the last four days, however, there has been a marked brightening of the countenances of the people, and a decided air of cheerfulness pervades the public mind. This, like the depression, cannot be justly attributed to any significant cause, for nothing which has occurred during the week signifies anything. It seems to be a sort of inward assurance of hope, which enables one to read in almost every face one meets, "The Democracy will carry Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana at their October elections, and Seymour and Blair will be elected." The feeling is every day becoming more confident, and doubts are disappearing

——"like thin clouds before a Biscay gale."

W. W. WHITE,
Clerk.

For the Sentinel.

TO THE WHITE MEN OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA.

The poll tax is all that the negroes pay, they neither having, nor intending to have, any thing like property to tax. Their State poll tax is now fifty cents a head. They are not compelled to pay this, as they can vote without paying it. Even this half a dollar poll tax does not go in to help the Treasury. It is compelled, by the new Constitution, to go towards educating the negro children.

If the negroes would pay enough to educate their own children, the white people might consent to allow them to stand off as a class privileged and favored. But they do not do it, and the Constitution compels the white labor of the State not only to keep the State Treasury going, but to pay for the education of the black children.

Let me illustrate: Take a white man—say John Williams: He owns a farm worth eight hundred dollars. He works hard and so do his wife, his boys and his girls. His tax, next year, will be (say) forty dollars. In such a case, fifteen dollars of it will be to pay for sending one, two or three negro children to school. For remember that, by the State Constitution, taxation is to be laid heavy enough to keep every child at school from six until twenty-one years old. Mr. Williams cannot spare his own children to go to school. He and his wife, with their little ones, live hard, work hard, die poor, and the negro children get the proceeds. By artful villainy, the men now in power in North Carolina have rented out every farm in the State and taken the proceeds to buy negro votes.—If Holden, Rodman & Co., had sent the negroes into your fields, each negro to take away a barrel of your corn, you would then see before you a spectacle that you would get your guns and put a stop to. But, fellow white men, they have done you much worse than that.—John Williams must pay his ten or fifteen dollars and keep the two or three negro children at school, while the parents of these negro children are justified, through the N. C. Standard, in killing and stealing Jno. Williams' hogs and cattle!

We read that the Devil took the Saviour up a high mountain and said: "All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me!" The Devil did not own the things offered. So Holden & Co. seized the income of the white people's farms and gave the same to the negroes for their support. They did not own what they gave, any more than the Devil did.—They seized upon fifteen dollars a year of John Williams' money, and bought negro votes with it.

Let every man in the State, as he toils on through his hard labor, remember that his labor goes not to himself, but it goes to pay the negroes for voting for Holden and his crew.

Bring it down, fellow men, to a common sense practical point. Three barrels of corn from the small farms, five from the larger, ten from the larger still, and so on up, will be the amount snatched from the white man and paid over to the negro for his vote.

If the white men of the State, with forty odd thousand majority, stand this, I trust that the next Legislature will authorize the sale at auction of delinquent white taxpayers, with power to the blacks to buy.

CATO.

The negroes are drilling, in Anson, by order of the Leagues. So says the Wadesboro' Argus.

FROM NEW ORLEANS—NEGROES FOR CONGRESS.

New Orleans, Oct. 5, P. M.

The Republicans have renominated J. H. Syher, for Congress, from the first District, and nominated L. A. Sheldon for the full term from the second District, and J. Wells Menard for Colman's unexpired term. Menard is a negro and announced himself as a candidate for nomination in a Circular, from which the following is an extract:

"The time has fully come to test the professions and principles of those who now control the Republican party of Louisiana, and it is a sacred duty to themselves (the colored people) to see that the colored race is not sold out by a few trading, treacherous white Republicans in Louisiana, as it has been in Georgia! This State is entitled to seven Representatives in Congress, and are not the colored people entitled to at least two out of this number? Is it not our duty to see that at least two colored citizens are selected to represent in Congress the ninety thousand colored voters of Louisiana? The ballot means equal rights, and if men are still to be debarred from the Halls of Congress, or even the White House, on account of the color of their faces, then reconstruction and Republicanism are lamentable failures. The reward of the long oppressed race will not be adequate, and the great cause of equal rights will not be finished, until the colored man is seen in every department of this Government.

It is necessary that the 41st Congress should possess more back-bone than the present one, in order to fix a plain provision in the supreme law of the Republic, which shall confer the ballot on every citizen, regardless of race or color, North, South, East and West."

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVETION:

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and the unerring justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligation of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the producer and the soldier, the pensioner and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of iniquitous modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the reduction of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abolition of useless offices, the restoration of the rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to struggling nationalities everywhere; the maintenance of inviolate of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected the States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has abolished the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices and seized the private papers of individuals and ransacked their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of official act, as required by the organic law; it has subverted the American entitled into a bastile; it has established a system of espionage, to which the despotisms of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is conferred by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not consent to do such things as to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by a frightful and needless expenditure has imposed upon the country the burden of the debt created by the war. It has struck down the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are tottering on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will have a subjugated and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare, and resolve that never since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the principle of trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any state of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and if sanctioned by the people will terminate our form of government, and can only end in a military consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of coequal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered and all the guaranties given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the preemption laws, homestead lands and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the states and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. Its pledges in no doubt or obscure language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people, and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling upon our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY. A GOOD MAN Leaveth an INHERITANCE

No extra charge for Females
No charge for Medical Examinat'n, Policies or stamps.

NEW YORK.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN, this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taxing all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1.000 at Death.
